Let Us Walk the Dog!

by Heidi Stoffel, Wilson Dyslexia Practitioner

Viv and Val have nothing to do.

They talk and talk and chat and chat.

What can they do?

Let us walk the dog! Chip is a swell dog.

He is white with black spots and likes to sniff.

Viv yells to Chip, "Let's go for a walk!"

Chip runs at the word "walk!"

Viv and Val and Chip walk in the grass.

Chip stops and stops and sniffs and sniffs.

Viv and Val prod Chip to walk more and sniff less.

Viv and Val jog to get Chip to run and stop the sniffs!

Chip runs and runs and Viv and Val grin and grin.

No more sniffs, no more stops!

It is fun to run with Chip, but not to walk with Chip.
