

Silent e, ccvcc, cvc, cvc/cvc and /ear/ spelling pattern

Sight words: new, walk, street, come, house, balloons, Uno, gave, buy, wait

/ear/ words: fear, near, year

Vocabulary: bash - party, culprit

Reader's Theater - The New Year Bash

Narrator: 2024 is the new year. Jill asked her pals Beth, Nick and Seth to help her plan a New Year's Bash.

Nick: We need hats and balloons!

Beth: We need drinks!

Seth: We need hot dogs, buns, pop and chips!

Jill: Let's walk to the All Is A Buck Shop and get that stuff! My dad gave me cash!

Narrator: The kids walk to the shop. They find hot dogs, drinks, chips, hats and balloons. They find games like basketball, Uno, Sorry and Slime.

Jill: Wow - this is swell! This is swift! We will have so much fun!

Beth: What if we run out of cash? This is a lot!

Seth: Can we lift all of this stuff and drag it home?

Nick: Yes, we can! Jill's house is near, have no fear! We will ring in the new year!

Narrator: Each kid lifts two bags, and off they trot to Jill's home.

Jill: Let's play songs while we hang up the balloons!

Seth: Let's wear our hats!

Beth: Let's get the chips, drinks and have a snack!

Narrator: The kids put on the New Year's hats. They drink the pop and snack on the chips. They hang balloons and pop them too.

Jill: Do not pop the balloons! My mom will get mad and have a fit.

Nick: Your cat is mad and had a fit...not your mom!

Beth: Yes, the cat is hissing and running under the blanket!

Seth: Ok - I will stop and not pop any balloons. I was the culprit.

Jill: Thank you Seth! Mittens the cat will be restful now.

Seth: Let's count to 100, and say it is the New Year! Happy 2024!